Jeanne M. Novotny PhD RN FAAN, Doris Lippman EdD APRN CS, Nicole Sanders BSN RN, Joyce Fitzpatrick PhD MBA RN FAAN : 101 Careers in Nursing before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 101 Careers in Nursing:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Worth a readBy Tina M. LanciaultThis book was worth the read for me because I write about the nursing profession and used it for research purposes. It can also be useful as a starting point for nurses who want to make a career change or new nurses who are looking for a nursing specialty to get into after nursing school. It does give you websites that you can go to for more information although some website addresses are unavailable due to sites moving or not existing anymore for whatever reason. You won't find salaries here but it does tell you if the employment outlook is low, medium or high. Also you'll find interviews with nurses in different specialties on how they got started, what they do and advice to nurses who want to get into that specialty .It's worth a read, it helped me in what I wanted to do.11 of 12 people found the following review helpful. Not worth the moneyBy C. MillerThis book briefly details 101 different careers in nursing. Each career is given about a page, and it has about 2-5 sentences about what the nurse would do, special skills needed, outlook in career field and links to organizations/associations to find out more information. I think it's not worth the money because you can find all the same information online just if you do a random search of nursing careers. The descriptions are not detailed enough to really tell you anything. Also the book includes several 'interviews' with nurses in various fields described in the book. I was not impressed, it looked to me like the nurses had a lot of time to edit their answers and none of the interviews actually said anything that would be useful. Again, it would be better to just search online for this information. I am just considering nursing school at this point, and I do recommend another book 'A career in nursing, is it right for me?' which was also found on .

Few careers have the advantages that nursing offers: flexibility, room for growth, satisfaction from helping others. And there is a desperate need for nurses--demand will exceed supply for some time to come. This concise and handy volume profiles 101 different types of nursing careers are profiled; each includes a basic description, education requirements, skills needed, compensation, related web sites, and professional organizations. Personal stories from practicing nurses highlight the content. Students, those looking for a career change, and RNs looking for new opportunities will find a wealth of information here.A Sample of Possible Career Choices:Acute Care Nurse PractitionerAdult Nurse PractitionerCase ManagerCritical Care NursingDiabetes EducatorDisaster/Bioterrorism NursingEmergency Room NurseGeriatric Nurse PractitionerHIV/AIDS SpecialistHospice and Palliative Care NursingInfection Control NurseMedical-Surgical NurseNurse MidwifeOncology NursePediatric Nurse Practitioner;Acute Care Nurse Practitioner Addictions Counselor Administrator/ManagerAn Interview with Lorna Green, Nurse Manager, Gero-Psychiatric UnitAdult Nurse Practitioner Ambulatory Care/Health Center Nurse Armed Services Nurse An Interview with Ella Bradshaw, Armed Services NurseAttorney Author/Writer An Interview with Eleanor Sullivan, Nurse Author Burn Nurse Camp Nurse Cardiovascular Nurse Case Manager Childbirth Educator Child Psychiatric Nurse Clinical Nurse Specialist Consultant Correctional Facility Nurse Critical Care Nurse Cruise Ship/Resort Nurse viiviii ContentsDiabetes Educator Disaster/Bioterrorism NurseEditor Educator in Academia Emergency Room Nurse EntrepreneurEpidemiology Nurse Ethicist Family Nurse Practitioner An Interview with Nancy Hamlin, Family Nurse PractitionerFlight Nurse/Critical Care Transport An Interview with Christopher Manacci, Flight Nurse SpecialistForensic NurseFraud and Abuse Investigator Gastroenterology Nurse Genetics Counselor Geriatric Nurse Practitioner An Interview with Annie Siu-Lin, Geriatric NursePractitionerHealth Coach Health Policy Analyst/Lobbyist HistorianHIV/AIDS Specialist An Interview with Ingrid Hansen, HIV Specialist Nurse Holistic Health Nurse/Massage Therapist Home Health Nurse Hospice and Palliative Care Nurse An Interview with Rose Walls, Palliative Care and Hospice NurseAn Interview with Malene Davis, Hospice NurseInfection Control Nurse Informatics Specialist Infusion Therapy Nurse International Health NurseInventor Lactation Counselor Contents ixAn Interview with Suzanne Hetzel Campbell, Lactation CounsellantLearning/Developmental Disabilities Nurse Legal Consultant An Interview with Susan Comstock, Legal Nurse ConsultantLong-Term Care Nurse Media Consultant Medical Records Auditor Medical-Surgical Nurse Neonatal Nurse Practitioner Nephrology Nurse Neuroscience Nurse Nurse Anesthetist An Interview with Christopher Reinhart, Nurse AnesthetistNurse Midwife Nurse Psychotherapist Nutrition Support NurseOccupational/Industrial Nurse Office Nurse Ombudsman Oncology Nurse Ophthalmic Nurse Organ Donation Counselor OR Nurse/Perioperative Nurse Orthopedic Nurse Otolaryngology Nurse Pain Management Nurse Parish Nurse An Interview with Cindy J.
