Scott B. MacDonald, Jonathan Lemco : Asia's Rise in the 21st Century before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Asia's Rise in the 21st Century:

This expert analysis looks at what the increasing economic and political prominence of China and other Asian nations means to the West and the rest of the world.

About the Author Scott B. MacDonald, PhD, is the head of credit and economics at Aladdin Capital Holdings, Stamford, CT, where he analyzes and helps make investment decisions for portfolios in excess of $1 billion in a number of Asian companies throughout Japan, Thailand, Indonesia, Vietnam, and Korea. Jonathan Lemco, PhD, is principal and senior sovereign risk analyst at The Vanguard Group, one of the world's largest mutual fund companies, and has a long-standing involvement with the Asian region.
