From Asian Development Bank : Asian Development Outlook 2012: Confronting Rising Inequality in Asia
before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Asian Development Outlook 2012: Confronting Rising Inequality in Asia:

Despite weak global demand, the Asian Development Outlook 2012 expects that developing Asia will largely maintain its growth momentum in the next couple of years, in an environment of easing inflation for most regional economies, although policy makers must be alert to further oil-price spikes arising from threats of oil supply disruptions. The report sees that the greatest risk to the outlook is the uncertainty surrounding the resolution of sovereign debt problems in the eurozone. Still, in the absence of any sudden shocks, developing Asia can manage the effects on its trade flows and financial markets.
