By Susan
This book is an incredibly powerful tool for women at all levels of their careers. I'm an executive recruiter and I've seen how often senior professionals do what they do because it's what they've done for a long time even though they aren't as satisfied with their careers as they could be. Granted, there are some strategies in the book that more senior women might already be using, but I believe that the book's emphasis on success being a journey rather than a destination can help anyone refocus their career regardless of where they are at. For less experienced professionals, this is an inspired road map to their own professional dreams and aspirations. A must read!

Self empowerment
By JennyGI had the pleasure of meeting Mariela Dabbah this evening and was honored when she autographed my book! This book has motivated me so much more and has helped me understand myself and how to achieve my goals. As I read the book my mind and body absorbed each line. Through her words of wisdom I have become inspired to continue accomplishing my life long dreams. This book is designed to help you create your own style in a very unique way. It is a self-help book which has increased my confidence level and enriched my soul. I truly believe every woman (and man) should read this book. Thank you! I look forward to working with you in the Red Shoe Movement!

By victorygall found the title interesting, the highlighted interviews at the beginning of each chapter inspiring and concept wonderful for young Latina professionals. I truly wished this book was written back when I was graduating from college. The lessons are valuable, applicable most importantly in today's society and offer a solid foundation to women who need a bit of guidance! The Red Shoe Movement is inspiring and truly resonates of being true to yourself while understanding how to survive and move forward in our careers as LATINAS. I appreciate Mariela Dabbah vision and creating a movement to inspire women and most importantly to feel EmpoweRED with our Red shoes! Pa'Lante!

ARE YOU STRUGGLING TO ADVANCE IN YOUR CAREER? HOW DO YOU DEFINE SUCCESS? In Find Your Inner Red Shoes, bestselling author, motivational speaker and founder of the Red Shoe Movement, Mariela Dabbah teaches us that personal and professional success is a journey and not a destination point. In fact, it's only by discovering ourselves and what gives us greatest satisfaction that we can define what success means for each one of us. Based on Dabbah's own life and thorough research, as well as the careers of dozens of other successful women, this book will help you fulfill your goals whatever you decide those to be. Chapter by chapter you'll identify your strengths as well as the areas in which you might need to make adjustments to advance in the professional world. Dabbah will also show you how to break free from any childhood fears or family pressures that may be holding you back. Only when you recognize who you are can you then tap into your passion and personal style and triumph in today's competitive global market. So go head, slip on those red heels (or flats!) and empower yourself, and other women, by joining the Red Shoe Movement. Only you can walk in your shoes down that shiny path toward success and this book is the perfect companion. Includes exclusive interviews with: SOLEDAD ORSQUO; BRIENMARIACUTE; A CELESTE ARRARAACUTE; SIVONNE BAKICAROLINA BAYOACUTE; NNORA BULNESANNA MARIACUTE; A CHAACUTE; VEZREMEDIOS DIACUTE; AZ OLIVERNANCY DUBUCELENA ROGERMARIACUTE; A ELENA SALINASROSELYN SAACUTE; NCHEZCRISTINA SARALEGUI

About the Author Born in Argentina, Mariela Dabbah is an award-winning best-selling author, thought-leader, corporate consultant, and media contributor on issues of education, career development and empowerment with a focus on Latinos. She's a sought-after international speaker and corporate trainer who has inspired diverse audiences to take the steps needed to fulfill their dreams. Dabbah is a frequent guest on CNN, Univision, Telemundo, Fox News, and all the major English and Spanish networks. In 2009 she created Latinos in College, a nonprofit organization to help Latino students in the U.S. find everything they need to succeed in college. In 2012, after the publication of the Spanish-language edition of this book, she launched the Red Shoe Movement, an initiative that encourages women to wear red shoes to work on Tuesdays to signal their support for other women's career advancement. The goal is to move the needle on female representation at the highest levels of all types of organizations. Aside from having published six books of nonfiction, Dabbah is also a fiction writer whose stories have been published in literary magazines and online. Her first book of short stories Cuentos de Nuevos Aires y Buena York (Metafrasta, 2006) has received wide public and critical acclaim and her first novel will be published soon. She lives in New York.
