Hugo Dobson : Japan and the G7/8: 1975-2002 (Sheffield Centre for Japanese Studies/Routledge Series) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Japan and the G7/8: 1975-2002 (Sheffield Centre for Japanese Studies/Routledge Series):

This book analyses Japan's international relations and participation in the multilateral forum, the G8, since its creation in 1975. The author explores the motivation of the Japanese government and non-governmental actor's aims and objectives and examines how and to what extent they have been achieved. Presenting a wealth of new research this theoretically informed book will be of interest to those studying international relations and Japanese politics.

About the Author Hugo Dobson is Lecturer in International Relations of Japan at the School of East Asian Studies, University of Sheffield.
