Sabirul Islam : Young Entrepreneur World before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Young Entrepreneur World:

Insights and lessons in what it takes to become a successful young entrepreneur. At the age of 14, Sabirul Islam became an entrepreneur by founding a web design company, whilst growing up in an underprivileged area of East London. When he was 16, he was lecturing teenagers at schools, colleges and universities about what it takes to become a young entrepreneur. In this book, Sabirul Islam presents 25 individuals, who all started out as entrepreneurs in their teenage years, and who have recently gone on to become successful and inspiring role models. Each young entrepreneur is profiled and answers questions about their journey and successes, providing rare insights into and lessons from the world of young entrepreneurs. Those profiled come from all over the world ndash; Europe, the US, Asia and Australia. Branded the ldquo;lost generationrdquo;, this book will challenge and inspire young people of today to create a successful and fulfilling future for themselves

About the AuthorAged 20, Sabirul Islam is a young entrepreneur from East London. He has lectured to thousands of teenagers in the UK, USA, South Africa, India and Nigeria about entrepreneurialism.
